RYAN DID GIVE TO WILSON
FUNDUnderwood Has Fact Expunged
From Record When It Is Declared at White House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Oscar W. Underwood's charge that Thomas Fortune Ryan contributed $10,000 to the campaign fund of President Wilson when he ran for Governor of New Jersey made on the floor of the House does not appear in The Congressional Record to-day. It was expunged by the Democratic floor leader after he had been told by the White House that Mr. Wilson had received nothing from Mr. Ryan.

It can be said on the highest authority, however, that Mr. Underwood made the statement on information that came to him directly from persons close to the multi-millionaire Wall Street man that Mr. Underwood was justified in placing the greatest faith in his reliability and made the statement in his reply to the charges of Representative Hahn, son of Alabama, with a full belief in its truth.

Harvey Bought Gift.
Notwithstanding the denial issued from the White House, The Georgian learned from one of its most confidential informants in bringing about the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for Governor of New Jersey that Thomas Fortune Ryan did contribute $10,000 to the Wilson gubernatorial campaign.

Colonel George Harvey, according to this newspaper's informant, sought and obtained the contribution. From the same source it was learned that James Smith, Jr., formerly United States Senator from New Jersey, who at the time of Dr. Wilson's nomination for Governor was the undisputed "boss" of the Democratic party in his State, "contributed" in his State.

Tariff Clause That
Aids U. S. Shipping
To Stand—Underwood

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—"The 5 per cent clause benefiting American shipping will stand in the new tariff act even at the risk of trade wars and other commercial complications," answered Representative Underwood after a visit to the White House to-day.

The fact that a number of trade treaties probably will be abrogated by the clause do not worry Mr. Underwood.

He thinks that the United States is well able to care for itself, should European nations attempt commercial reprisals.

Two Officers Shot;
Crazed Negro Slain

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 15.—As the result of a street fight in the main business section of Laurinburg, two officers were wounded, one probably fatally, and a supposedly crazed negro, who was cause of the combat, is dead.

Detective Finkbeiner, of the Sea-board Air Line, who followed the negro from Hamlet, where he was wanted, grappled with him after he was shot through the stomach, and Officer Brown, of Laurinburg, picking his chance, fired at the negro at every turn. It took five pistol bullets to stop the negro's head to down him. Officer Brown is not seriously wounded, though several bullets took effect.

Editor to Face Trial
In Illegal Mail Case

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 15.—W. O. Saunders, editor of The Down Home and Independent of Elizabeth City, who has been several times tried in State courts for libel and acquitted each time, will go on trial this week in Federal Court at Elizabeth City on a charge of circulating through United States mails obscene literature.

A request for a continuance of this case and also one in which Governor Hahn was summoned as a witness, was denied by the court.

No Verdict in Case
Charging Perjury

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 15.—The jury in the case of Dr. H. O. Null, county physician charged with perjury in connection with the probe of the workhouse, this afternoon reported a mistrial.

Null was charged with swearing that there was no evidence of violence upon the body of a convict who was hanged after it had been asserted that he died from the effects of a beating.

Immediately after the autopsy the body was sent to Knoxville, Tenn., the Haug family home, where informant will take place probably Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haug, parents of the slain stenographer, and her younger sister, Marjorie, accompanied the body.

Train Kills Boy on His Way to School;
Chum Sees Tragedy

Thomas Jackson Harris, an 11-year-old schoolboy living with his parents on the McDonough road near the Federal prison, was killed by a Southern passenger train Wednesday at Sevierville crossing.

The boy left home with his two brothers to go to the Lakewood Heights School. As a northbound freight train approached the crossing he ran ahead of his brothers and crossed the track. Standing on the track used by southbound trains, he was watching the freight pass and failed to see the passenger train which struck him.

The engineer made every effort to stop the train and after the accident took the body of the boy and backed the train to Rockland Station.

Conner Douglas investigated the accident. There being eye-witnesses, no inquest will be held.

JULIAN HAWTHORNE,
FREE MAN ONCE AGAIN

Julian Hawthorne, the novelist, a free man Wednesday, after serving a term in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary, told a startling story of his life as a convict, in which he called the Atlanta prison a "living hell," and said Warden Meyer was "unfit."

With all the emphasis at his command, Hawthorne arraigned conditions in the penitentiary as repulsive, cruel, and the equal of the most lurid descriptions in fiction.

"They are starving men in the name of economy," he said.

And Dr. W. J. Morton, of New York, his friend and fellow prisoner, nodded his head in corroboration.

"Prisoners are subjected to treatment that is nothing more than slow murder," said Dr. Morton, who is a practicing physician.

"There is never enough to eat. The warden attempts to feed strong men on 9 cents a day, and when he succeeds he brings about it."

In the short time they remained in Atlanta after their release, Hawthorne and Dr. Morton talked much of conditions at the penitentiary, jumping from one detail to the other with a dramatic swiftness that made the story harrowing.

"Oh, yes, you hear of the clean cells in which the prisoners sleep," said Hawthorne. "But you never hear of the 'hole,' do you?"

For the slightest fault, sometimes for breaking a plate, sometimes for a little more or less, a prisoner is sent to the "hole," a place under the main building for solitary confinement.

"There the heat is terrific at times, and the stench is bad. There some prisoners are chained by their wrists, and held thus with arms outstretched for hours. And sometimes confinement in the 'hole' is for days."

Scores Prison Fares.
"But the element of hell is in the feeding," he continued, his eyes flashing. "There has never a man gone into the prison but who undergoes a steady deterioration, maybe slow, but always sure. The doctor will tell you that."

He waved at Dr. Morton, who nodded acquiescence.

"Men are put in prison to be cared for," said Dr. Morton, "not to be subjected to slow murder."

The two accepted the invitation of a Georgian reporter ride about Atlanta. But the automobile, they forgot to ask of the place after another. Hawthorne gripped the sides of his seat, and vowed vengeance on the system which he described.

"And the treatment is always that of beasts or criminals," he went on. "There are always the guards and the rifles, giving the public the impression that the men in prison are wild men, as desperadoes. And now and then men are clubbed for little nothing. There is a guard named Dean whom I have seen strike a prisoner over the head, and for no justifiable offense."

Escaped Hard Treatment.
The reporter wondered if Hawthorne himself had come in for such treatment, and asked him.

"No," said the novelist, "I have nothing at which I have nothing at which I

have nothing at which I

have nothing at which I have nothing at which I

Found dead at her hotel. This, however, has not been verified. The pistol found by the dead girl's side, it is said, was purchased by her while living in Bainbridge. It is a black .25-caliber Smith &amp; Wesson. It is thought she had it in her grip when she came to Thomasville.

A post-mortem examination of the body of Miss Haug was made just before her funeral. This examination showed all vital organs of the slain girl in natural condition.

With the release of T. W. Duane, arrested Tuesday on suspicion, who connected the police that he had no connection with the murder, the slaying is as much a mystery today as two days ago.

Thus far there is absolutely no clue to the identity of the slayer, and the police and Chamber are at a loss to know which way to proceed to try some other plan for distributing the places.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—With 500 applications already in for the 6 positions as Deputy Internal Revenue Collectors to be appointed for Georgia under the income tax provision of the new tariff law and the original arrangement of dividing the positions among the fourteen members of the Georgia delegation in Congress having developed into a hopeless tangle, the Treasury Department virtually had decided to try some other plan for distributing the places.

GOVERNOR IS FACING CERTAIN DEFEAT

WILLIAM SULZER, NEW YORK GOVERNOR

But Fourteen, in Test Ballot, Vote to Save the New York Executive.

ALBANY, N. Y., 5:10 P. M.—The vote on article 1 of the Sulzer impeachment charges, which alleges the Governor filed a false statement of his campaign funds, now is 24 guilty, 10 not guilty.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The count of impeachment at 2:10 p. m. today began the final vote on the removal of Governor William Sulzer from office on charges of high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

Article 1 of the impeachment articles, which charges that Sulzer made a false and fraudulent report concerning campaign contributions to the Secretary of State, was taken up first.

Conviction on one article is sufficient to remove the Governor from office. Even the Governor's friends admitted that his defeat appeared certain.

Of the first 25 votes on article 1, twenty were "guilty" and seven "not guilty." Forty-eight of the 57 votes to be cast are necessary to convict.

Guilty in Secret Vote. Governor Sulzer this morning was tentatively found guilty upon three articles of impeachment out of the eight brought against him.

This was the semi-official report that followed the adjournment of the court of impeachment at 1:31 o'clock this afternoon after being in session nearly three hours.

The three articles upon which the impeachment agreement was reached to render a verdict of guilty were:

Article 1—The charge that the Governor made a false campaign statement to the Secretary of State.

Article 2—The charge that the Governor committed perjury in making the statement.

Article 4—The charge that the Governor advised Duane W. Peck to wear labels before the Brainerd committee.

It was learned that the vote on article 4 stood 43 to 14 for conviction, and it was reported that Judge Cullen was the only member of the Court of Appeals who sided with the Governor.

The decision reached in executive session made it practically certain that the court would remove the Governor.

After the court had passed upon the articles it was decided that the resolution inflicting punishment should carry with it removal from office, but not disqualification to hold any other office.

Fourteen members voted to save the Governor. They were Judge Cullen and Senators Dupont, Simpson, Hancock, McKnight, O'Keefe, Palmer, Peckham, Seely, Silvers, Thomas, Wendt, Wheeler and Whitney.

Now Early Vote Stood. Three of the early votes for Governor Sulzer were cast by Judges of the Court of Appeals, Chief Justice Cullen and Judge Chase and Bartlett. Judge Chase, in voting "not guilty," stated that while he believed the Governor had committed the offense alleged in the first article, he could not be convicted of an offense committed prior to his term of office.

Judge Cullen voted guilty and said he would file a formal brief with the court later.

13-STORY ANNEX IS PLANNED FOR THE ANSLEY

Addition Will Complete Plans as Originally Contemplated by Founders of Hotel.

The Hotel Ansley, southwest corner of North Forsyth and James streets, is soon to have a thirteen-story annex, according to information obtained in hotel circles Thursday. This will be located directly west and back of the present structure, at the southwest corner of James and Fairfax streets, and will contain among other features a splendidly equipped garage maintained by the hotel.

Colonel J. B. Pound, of Chattanooga, president of the Hotel Ansley Investment Company, builders of the hotel, will arrive in the city next week, it is said, with the idea of taking up this matter and putting it in definite shape.

It was the original intention of the hotel management to make this addition as soon as patronage justified it, and Colonel Pound is said to be well pleased with the financial success of his undertaking. According to Assistant Manager Day, of the Hotel Ansley, there have been 25,000 guests to date, although the structure has been opened only about four months.

The lot for the proposed annex is 50 feet on James street and 90 feet on Fairfax, and was leased by the Realty Trust Company from the J. M. High estate for 99 years, and subleased by the hotel company. The lot on which the hotel proper stands was leased and subleased under the same arrangement.

Hotel officials who talked of the project Thursday declared that the significance in the move was that it pointed to Atlanta as a great hotel town.

Death Suit at $7,000

Content verdict for $7,000 was agreed upon Thursday morning in the suit of Mrs. Pearl Adams, administratrix of the estate of J. W. Adams, against the Southern Railway.

The plaintiff entered suit for $10,000 for the death of her husband, who was run over and killed, it is alleged in August, 1912.

The decision reached in executive session made it practically certain that the court would remove the Governor.

After the court had passed upon the articles it was decided that the resolution inflicting punishment should carry with it removal from office, but not disqualification to hold any other office.

Fourteen members voted to save the Governor. They were Judge Cullen and Senators Dupont, Simpson, Hancock, McKnight, O'Keefe, Palmer, Peckham, Seely, Silvers, Thomas, Wendt, Wheeler and Whitney.

Now Early Vote Stood. Three of the early votes for Governor Sulzer were cast by Judges of the Court of Appeals, Chief Justice Cullen and Judge Chase and Bartlett. Judge Chase, in voting "not guilty," stated that while he believed the Governor had committed the offense alleged in the first article, he could not be convicted of an offense committed prior to his term of office.

Judge Cullen voted guilty and said he would file a formal brief with the court later.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The count of impeachment at 2:10 p. m. today began the final vote on the removal of Governor William Sulzer from office on charges of high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

Article 1 of the impeachment articles, which charges that Sulzer made a false and fraudulent report concerning campaign contributions to the Secretary of State, was taken up first.

Conviction on one article is sufficient to remove the Governor from office. Even the Governor's friends admitted that his defeat appeared certain.

Of the first 25 votes on article 1, twenty were "guilty" and seven "not guilty." Forty-eight of the 57 votes to be cast are necessary to convict.

Guilty in Secret Vote. Governor Sulzer this morning was tentatively found guilty upon three articles of impeachment out of the eight brought against him.

This was the semi-official report that followed the adjournment of the court of impeachment at 1:31 o'clock this afternoon after being in session nearly three hours.

The three articles upon which the impeachment agreement was reached to render a verdict of guilty were:

Article 1—The charge that the Governor made a false campaign statement to the Secretary of State.

Article 2—The charge that the Governor committed perjury in making the statement.

Article 4—The charge that the Governor advised Duane W. Peck to wear labels before the Brainerd committee.

It was learned that the vote on article 4 stood 43 to 14 for conviction, and it was reported that Judge Cullen was the only member of the Court of Appeals who sided with the Governor.

ASSNBL SUSTAINS CHARGES, 39 TO 18

Conviction on Single One of Eight Articles Sufficient to Remove Executive.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 15.—Governor William Sulzer was convicted this afternoon by the court of impeachment, consisting of the State Senate and judges of the Court of Appeals.

The court voted first on article one of the impeachment and found the governor guilty of making a false report of his campaign fund to the Secretary of State. Conviction on only one count is necessary for the Governor's removal from office. The final vote was 39 to 18.

The vote was the same on article two.

The court then reached a decision as to what its verdict would be in executive session that had lasted all day Wednesday and this morning, but the final session this afternoon was opened to the public. Each member as he voted was given an opportunity to explain the reason for his ballot. This made the matter of reaching the trial a long-drawn-out affair.

Article 1 of the impeachment act, which charges that Sulzer made a false and fraudulent report concerning campaign contributions to the Secretary of State, was taken up first.

Guilty in Secret Vote.

Governor Sulzer this morning was tentatively found guilty upon three articles of impeachment out of the eight brought against him.

This was the semi-official report that followed the adjournment of the court of impeachment at 1:11 o'clock this afternoon after being in session nearly three hours.

The three articles upon which the tentative agreement was reached to render a verdict of guilty were:

Article 1.—The charge that the Governor made a false campaign statement to the Secretary of State.

Article 2.—The charge that the Governor committed perjury in making the statement.

Article 3.—The charge that the Governor advised Duncan W. Peck to swear falsely before the Hawley committee.

It was learned that the vote on article 1 stood 41 to 14 for conviction, and it was reported that Judge Cullen was the only member of the Court of Appeals who sided with the Governor.

The decision reached in executive session made it practically certain that the court would remove the Governor.

After the court had passed upon the articles it was decided that the resolution inflicting punishment should carry with it removal from office, but not disqualification to hold any other office.

Fourteen members voted to save the Governor.

They were Judge Cullen and Senators Dupont, Emerson, Hearsh, McKelvin, McKee, Palmer, Peckham, Selby, Stevens, Thomas, Wheeler and Whitney.

Detective Finds Dead Girl Purchased Pistol in Bainbridge. Coroner's Inquest Ends.

THOMASVILLE, Oct. 15.—"Suicide of herself" was the verdict of the Coroner's jury in the case of Dorothy Haug at a re-convened hearing this afternoon.

That the jury would reverse its verdict of "murdered by an unknown party" and render a verdict of suicide, was expected this afternoon, before the jury re-convened when Detective Peck of the Pinkerton agency returned from Bainbridge. While there he established the sale of a pistol to the dead girl and became satisfied that, despite some peculiar circumstances connected with the case, there was not enough evidence to warrant a verdict other than of suicide.

It was upon the report of Dr. T. M. McIntosh who performed the autopsy that the Coroner's jury rendered its original verdict that the girl was murdered. His opinion that the appearance of the body indicated that Miss Haug had been struck in the head with a blunt instrument was accepted by the jury, who rendered a verdict in accordance with his testimony.

To Detective Peck it was the finding of the bullet which proved through the girl's brain, he having insisted upon a complete examination of the skull. The bullet was re-

ABSENTEE OF RING POLITICIANS O'Neal and Ring Politicians Back of Rival's Candidacy.

Congressman Richard P. Hoban, of Alabama, was in Atlanta last night Thursday to eat lunch and fire a mighty broadside at Congressman Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, emphasizing on his charges that the latter was a "tool of Wall Street."

"The Senatorial fight in Alabama represents not only a State struggle, but a national battle as well," opened up the fighting Congressman to a reporter for The Georgian.

"On the one side, marshaled by Underwood, are the conservatives, reactionary politicians, the corporations and liquor interests. On the other are the liberal progressive, constructive and temperance and prohibition forces."

The present administration of Alabama is, indeed, a stench in the nostrils of the good people of that State," and the Congressman ruffled what little hair was left on his head.

"The Governor of Alabama has been the prime mover in shaping up the campaign for the reactionaries, liquor and the corporations. In conference with other politicians of the same stripe he appointed Congressman Clayton to lead the vast majority of the House Judiciary Committee, expecting that he would strengthen in his political attack, and even his credentials were not accepted in the United States Senate."

Then the last card was played and Underwood was drawn into the fight.

"Since the discussion on the floor of the House last Monday I gave you ten minutes to the charges against Underwood, and he had a whole hour for his point defence, going far afield from the charges and taking up questions of years ago. With this new material injected into the discussion, without any chance for a rejoinder on my part, I suggested to Mr. Underwood that we meet in Alabama and have joint discussions in regular form. It is a bit of semi-rage he announced in his speech that he did not intend to go into the 'dirty politics' of Alabama. His effort then and the effort of his friends and friendly newspapers is still to pretend that I was 'slandering' him when I simply stated the sworn testimony of the Senate committee investigating the campaign contributions, which showed that Underwood was a Wall Street dummy."

"On the door of the House Monday afternoon at 10:15, three men came in to see my campaign headquarters three times, and yet claimed that they knew nothing about the contributions. Didn't Look for Evidence."

"He didn't seem to be sufficiently curious to find out where the money was coming from when one minute's glance at the books could have told him. It is a poor general who doesn't know where his ammunition is coming from."

He also refuted Underwood's action in defeating the Senate amendment of the tariff bill placing $1.10 duty per gallon on brandy and strengthening wheat, thus making a gift of seven and a quarter million dollars to the liquor men, and taking that amount

HOWARD TO PUSH PROBE OF U. S. PENITENTIARY

Congressman Declares He Knows Many of Charges Made by Hawthorne Are True.

men in charge of the administration of the prison.

"I am not prepared to say exactly what weight the charges of Hawthorne and Morton will have with the Government," said Congressman Howard, "but I do know that I am going to start an investigation of the institution from top to bottom. I know that what these two men have said is true, in part, if not entirely. I am going to see that the men in charge for a humane and efficient administration. Certain of the local officials are responsible for the diagnosed conditions that exist. I am not to find just where the responsibility lies."

"I am not as yet bringing charges against any particular man at the prison, but I am naming the 'prison officials' as the resting place for the responsibility. There will be time enough to particularize after the investigation has started."

George T. Meech Self-Prize.

Congressman Howard charged that the prison and certain of its officials had been receiving extrajudicially favorable treatment and that the prison officials were "promoting" themselves and some of the features of their work which they would call to the attention of the Department of Justice.

"I have made much of the cleanliness of the prison, of hospital games, of prize newspapers," he said. "I know that playing baseball and editing a newspaper on an empty stomach is small enjoyment even for a man who is detained against his will."

"Hawthorne and Morton, I believe and hope, placed their estimate of the cost of meals to the prisoner at nine cents. Nine cents a day is their estimate. To the best of my knowledge this cost now runs between 11 1/2 and 12 cents, nearer the lower figure for the greater part of the time."

Average Prison Menu.

"This is about the average menu for one day at the Atlanta Federal Prison:

Breakfast—1 1/2 lb. potatoes, butter, and black coffee.

Lunch—Baked beef (about three times a week), baked potatoes, cabbage and bread. Sometimes string beans are served instead of one of the other vegetables.

Supper—Rolled rolls and syrup or one-third of a pie.

"Any one can see that this is not by any means sufficient for a man who has to engage the greater part of the day in manual labor. Any man who has to put up with this sort of food and who does not know his business is in charge of the kitchen and that the food frequently is badly prepared."

Recalls Food Riot.

"What Hawthorne and Morton had to say about the food riot is common knowledge. The official attitude in charge is responsible. The Government makes the appropriations, but does not consider the administration of affairs locally in each prison."

"However much a man or set of men may deserve credit for introducing baseball into a Federal prison, a honest man should be able to get a man out of a cell in 30 or 35 days if he is a 'prison expert'."

A timely communication in view of the charges made by Hawthorne and Morton, appeared in the Italian newspaper, "L'Avanti," of New York, October 4. It was in the form of a letter from an Italian convict, sentenced for smuggling, who had just been released and who charged that insufficient and poorly prepared food was given him and that the conditions were almost unbearable.

Here is a literal translation of his letter:

Tells of Bad Food.

Mr. Editor: To have a feeble idea of the abuses committed by the prison officials against the Italian I will be enough to say that my cellmate on account of my poor health and weak constitution (for he had a swollen neck and was unable to use it as a pillow during the night), was punished with seven days solitary confinement.

WARDEN ASKS PROBE OF GEORGIAN'S STORY

tables, but never but one vegetable. Super-added rolls and syrup or one-third of a pie.

"Any one can see that this is not by any means sufficient for a man who has to engage the greater part of the day in manual labor. Any man who has to put up with this sort of food and who does not know his business is in charge of the kitchen and that the food frequently is badly prepared."

Recalls Food Riot.

"What Hawthorne and Morton had to say about the food riot is common knowledge. The official attitude in charge is responsible. The Government makes the appropriations, but does not consider the administration of affairs locally in each prison."

"However much a man or set of men may deserve credit for introducing baseball into a Federal prison, a honest man should be able to get a man out of a cell in 30 or 35 days if he is a 'prison expert'."

A timely communication in view of the charges made by Hawthorne and Morton, appeared in the Italian newspaper, "L'Avanti," of New York, October 4. It was in the form of a letter from an Italian convict, sentenced for smuggling, who had just been released and who charged that insufficient and poorly prepared food was given him and that the conditions were almost unbearable.

Here is a literal translation of his letter:

Tells of Bad Food.

Mr. Editor: To have a feeble idea of the abuses committed by the prison officials against the Italian I will be enough to say that my cellmate on account of my poor health and weak constitution (for he had a swollen neck and was unable to use it as a pillow during the night), was punished with seven days solitary confinement.

COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Influenced by a compromise of a lockout in the British mills, the cotton market opened steady to day, with prices at a not advanced of 12 to 13 points from the closing quotations of Wednesday.

After the call the advance met some selling by Liverpool and brokers representing West and prices eased off 1 to 2 points from the opening range. Later the market steadied, some heavy buying by additional orders. The larger and more active and the bull forces joined in the buying side. The buying was heavy, chiefly on unfavorable weather prospects for the crop in the West and the fact of the first heavy rain in the West which advanced the price to 22 1/2 cents. The early market showed some volatility, but with little change in the evening half of the day. There was no danger of any damaging cold weather.

Special Tax Urged As School Relief

Resolutions urging a special tax for relief of cramped conditions in Atlanta's public schools, adopted by the directors of the Anti-Tuberculosis and Visiting Nurse Association on Tuesday, were made public Thursday.

The resolutions cite the crowded schoolrooms which, it is asserted, are conducive to the spread of infectious diseases, especially tuberculosis.

Adopted by these resolutions were sent to the Board of Education of the city and the Atlanta press.

STONE MT. FARE FIGHT BEFORE COMMISSION

Railroad Commission Hears Protest Against 35-Cent Rate Proposed for Trip.

A hundred or more citizens of Decatur and Stone Mountain appeared before the Railroad Commission today and asked that the Georgia Railroad and Power Company be not authorized to charge a 35-cent fare from Atlanta to Stone Mountain on a 10-cent fare to Decatur on the new line.

The petitioners argued that these fares would be excessive and unreasonable, and also in keeping with present street railway fares to Decatur and vicinity.

The street car people were represented by President Armstrong, who stated that the fares would be equitable and just. The fare to Decatur now is only 5 cents, but the new service is to provide limited service cars to Decatur and beyond, and for that reason a higher rate should apply, according to the commission.

The commission has the matter under consideration.

HOWARD TO PUSH PROBE OF U. S. PENITENTIARY

Congressman Declares He Knows Many of Charges Made by Hawthorne Are True.

Howard, in convention by the president of the American Prison Association, wired to Attorney General Clegg, an epitome of the charges contained in "The Georgian" review with Hawthorne and put the matter of an investigation directly to the Department of Justice.

Coming from the distinguished attorney and his companion, Dr. Morton, the review was given a credence which they would not have obtained from other prisoners. Talk today was of an immediate investigation. Official action was expected immediately.

The amazing description of conditions caused all the more astonished from the fact that the prison in Atlanta had been regarded as a model institution in every respect and as an example of what efficient administration and humane treatment of prisoners will accomplish.

Moyer Sends Denial to The Georgian.

Garden Moyer, who has been in Atlanta attending the annual convention of the American Prison Association, wired a sweeping denial of the charges as soon as he learned the nature of the charges against the institution.

"I will welcome any investigation," he telegraphed. "I am sure that absolutely no truth in the charges will be found."

Howard to Demand Probe.

Howard, on the heels of the bitter denials uttered by Hawthorne and Moyer, another denials was sprung. "The Georgian" has been wired to the prison authorities with a request for an immediate investigation.

The Georgia Congressman asserted that he was aware of the truth of the charges, and that the conditions described in the review were true. He introduced a bill for the immediate improvement of the institution.

FUNDS ASKED TO ENFORCE SMOKE ORDINANCE

Chairman of Commission Wants Two Inspectors Now and One Inspector in April.

Increased efforts to abate Atlanta's smoke nuisance are promised for the near future by R. M. Harwell, chairman of the Smoke Commission.

"The Georgian's editorial on Wednesday came pretty near doing us in," he said Thursday.

"We have accomplished a good deal, but not near enough. It is hardly practical to start a new law at this season with the cold weather ahead of us, but we need a more rigid law to go into effect April 1, and I believe Council will pass it."

"What we do need immediately is more money to carry on the work of the department. We are going to make an aggressive fight for it when the new budget is made up in January. Such publicity as the Georgian has been giving the fight against smoke has convinced the people that the nuisance can be abated."

The Smoke Commission has called on the city for a new law to stop the smoke. "Council will have the smoke nuisance abated, I think, but the money is not there. We need more money to carry on the work of the department."

"If they will give us enough money to hire two more inspectors, we will get this work of the smoke nuisance within six months. If they'll give us enough to buy new testing equipment, we'll see that the smoke gets better every day."

GRADING IS ONLY GIVEN HALT BY INJUNCTION

Officials Determined to Complete Whitehall Work, But There Is Much Real Opposition.

City and county officials were confident Thursday that the injunction against the Whitehall street repaving project would amount to nothing more than needless and very annoying delay.

"We intended to put 100 additional men on the work to finish it as soon as possible," said Philip Smith, chairman of the city's construction department.

The officials have no fear that the injunction will stop the work. "We are going to finish it," said Smith.

In spite of the fact that many business men along Whitehall street seemed to favor a speedy termination of the work now that it has been started, there are unquestionably many who claim it will mean the loss of business to them to have the work done now.

"I would have thought the project of it would have accomplished anything," said Smith. "We have a good general manager of the city, Mr. Jones. We will finish it."

Presbytery to Meet Next in Birmingham

ANNISTON, Ala., Oct. 15.—The North Alabama Presbytery, which has been in session at Anniston, adjourned this afternoon to meet next morning at Woodlawn church, Birmingham.

Held for Check Fraud. BIRMINGHAM, N. C., Oct. 16.—W. T. Rainbolt, a prominent traveling man, was arrested here today charged with passing a fraudulent check on an Atlanta merchant. An officer from that place will come for him.

He stated that nothing could be done to stop it. "I already have lost our company about $2,000, and we will have to spend much more after the work is finished, remodeling our front. This money goes toward lessening property values in the city. I can see no good that it will do us."

"Note that the work has been started, though. I hope that they hurry and complete it."

AUBURN TEAM IN FINE SHAPE FOR CLEMSON

Mike Donohue's Gridiron Men Came Through Florida Game With No Injuries.

By Mike Donohue.
Clemson Auburn Football Team.
COLUMBIA, Ala., Oct. 16.—The Auburn team came through the Auburn game in good shape. The players are getting along very well and in great condition for the game.

but will have the full strength on the gridiron. The playing in the Florida game was an improvement over the three games, especially in the line. With Lawson and Thibault setting the pace, the line charged hard and carried the charges through much better. Outside of the first few minutes, when there was considerable running, the Auburn line showed considerable improvement in blocking. It is a day's work to get into as good a line as Auburn has ever had. The line will be in the best of condition for the game. The line will be in the best of condition for the game. The line will be in the best of condition for the game.

hard to find, and his height, weight and speed make him formidable against any kind of attack. On the whole, if the team keeps up its present development and the all-around play, it is not unlikely that Auburn might be represented in November in a team fully as good, if not better, than that of last year.

This week new players are being brought into the team. It would seem from the games played so far that the new players are not as strong as those expected to be. They are, however, fast, and will be able to hold on their own ground. If Auburn expects anything more, they are not to be very much surprised.

Francis Ouimet TELLS OF THE EFFECTIVE SHOTS USED BY GOLFERS

Written expressly for The Georgian by the open golf champion of the United States.

WITH the iron it is quite natural that a greater variety of shots can be played. The club can be made to play the slice or the pull as the driver and brassy cut. Then, of course, there is the low shot which is played with this club. This can not be played as safely with the wooden club. To get this low shot with a club, take an open stand with the ball a few inches in front of the feet, just a shade ahead of the club head. After lifting the ball let the club head follow after the ball. It will be seen that the club head is not in a position to follow the ball, but the club head is in a position to follow the ball. The club head is in a position to follow the ball.

SPLENDOR on GEORGIA POLITICS

By JAMES B. NEVIN

Whatever may be the opinions of various people in Georgia, it is a fact that papers outside of this State have been uniformly enthusiastic in their praise of the work accomplished by the Legislature at its summer session.

While it is true that the session dragged at times—it would express the situation best to say, perhaps that it sagged in the middle—it made a splendid finish and after all is said and done, results are what the people are looking for when their Legislature meets.

Georgia was one of four States that did not have some sort of tax qualification when the Legislature assembled on June 25. Thousands of people outside of Georgia were amazed to find that such was the case. Georgia also was one of a minority of States that did not have an inheritance tax law.

Thanks to the recommendations of the Governor and the splendid work of true and loyal friends of the administration inside the General Assembly, Georgia now has both!

Which of the newspaper comment outside of Georgia with respect to the accomplishments of the Legislature has been reprinted. It may be some satisfaction to the members of the General Assembly, particularly to the legislative staff, to find that the two big pieces of legislation effected during the session have been so favorably received.

The tax qualification law and the inheritance tax law are both in the hands of the Governor and the Legislature. It is the duty of the Legislature to pass the law and the duty of the Governor to execute it.

The tax qualification law is a very important law. It is a law that will help to build up the State. It is a law that will help to build up the State.

Remnant Day! In the Wash Goods

The Selling and Savings Begin at 9 o'Clock

Most Atlanta women know what a Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Remnant Day means. For then the simple announcement that to-morrow will bring another is sufficient.

But for those who do not know—Our attitude toward remnants is very decided. We will not keep them—we have no place for them, they clutter and clog. So as fast as they accumulate they are put aside against such a time as this when we give them a day and the public a fine opportunity. For there is a vast difference between your viewpoint of remnants and ours.

To you a remnant may be just the required length. And as to-morrow on such wanted fabrics as kindergarten cloth, galates, shirtings, ginghams, linen cloth, linen sheeting, linen crash, linen lawn, linen cambric, Irish linen, linen pillow casing, brown linen, pique, percale, new cloth, poplin, lawn, Idealene cloth, crepe, cotton, cotton flannel, cotton sheeting, flannel; indeed, it is a fine opportunity.

A Showing of the New Autumn Laces To-morrow

When boxes of new laces are opened women are interested! On top of this some of these laces are very remarkably priced. A fine day to-morrow for women!

They shall see all the laces that are now wanted for the new waists, dresses and underwear—for the "soft styles," as they have been called—perhaps so called because softness is the very quality that these laces lend to the styles.

At least this seems to have been the idea of Paul Poirer when he (for instance) gave us the Minaret gown and incidentally a great impetus to the use of laces.

Shadow Laces—Cream, white and black, edges, bands, flouncings and allovers in high favor because they are so tissue-like.

Chantilly Laces, the always elegant lace—new patterns, in edges, bands, flouncings and allovers, white, cream and black.

Net Top Laces, soft, delicate, dainty—much sought for overdraperies of evening dresses. Edges, bands and allovers; white, cream and black.

Camisole Laces for the transparent dresses; white with ribbon heading at top and bottom; they are 12 to 18 inches wide and specially priced at 20c, 50c and 75c a yard.

Shadow Net, beautiful, 42 inches wide; white, cream, ecru and black, $1.00 to $5.00 a yard.

Point d'Esprit, 36 to 45 inches wide; cream, flesh and black, 50c to $3.00 a yard.

Plain Net, 32 to 72 inches wide; cream, flesh and black, 50c to $2.00 a yard.

The Store of Trimmings is a busy spot. That is because women are finding in it the trimmings the fashions decree and, therefore, the ones they want.

There are many beautiful things that come under the old names of—embroidered and beaded bands, galloons, edges, flouncings, crystal and gold and silver bands, tassels, loops, ornaments and frogs and fur and marabout trimmings.

The result is an exquisite tailored suit!

There are many models to choose from—in many shades.

Yours may be a cutaway, or it may be a smart, short coat, simulating a cutaway or with a girdled back. It may have a little vestee—most of them have—of a Dresden silk or an Oriental velour—and it will probably have a bit of fur about it—a “choker” collar or cuffs of skunk.

And still—

Velvet and velour suits are but one phase of the suit question as it is seen and answered here.

There are those sturdy chevots and mixtures and serges, smart, trim, tailored to perfection, with style in every line and service in every stitch.

The variety inspires confidence.

It makes choosing easy.

It bids us—even were we so inclined—of the necessity of urging customers one way or the other. You may have spread before you suit after suit until you light upon the one you want.

Rather satisfactory to have such a suit store to depend on, isn't it?

This Is a Good Time to Select

that is going to play such an important part in the fashions this season. For the new dresses and suits are built on the supposition that the wearer will be corseted according to very sensible and graceful fashion of this good fall season of 1913.

So we have

who is up on corsets, an expert in the real sense of the word, here for the week to show the women of Atlanta all about and how it molds the figure to those lines that conform to the lines of the dresses and suits.

It is well worth a woman's time to give a few minutes right now to the fitting of a corset—and then it will be done and done rightly for the whole season.

Common Sense Makes a Good Voter

INFORMATION is at least as important as Education, and the So-Called "Ignorant Voter" is the Most Valuable Vote.

Copyright, 1922, by The Georgia Company.

Mr. Sunshine, who manufactures pressing and ironing appliances, sends in his "solution of a problem," as follows:

"Dear Sir: The solution of the woman's suffrage question can be summed up by passing a law that all persons, male or female desiring to vote and having reached the voting age, shall pass an examination as to their education and intelligence; that those who can pass that examination shall be permitted to vote, others not."

That sounds very nice, but it is all wrong.

What we need is earnest men and women with common sense, character, honesty, devotion to their children, belief in republican government, willingness to work.

Your plan to keep men and women away from the polls if they lack education would be a bad thing—almost as bad as the stupid and criminal plan which is constantly proposed at Washington to keep out of our country immigrants that lack education of a bookish kind.

It isn't education—book knowledge—or a university degree that makes the good voter.

What the country needs is honesty, earnestness, and especially that kind of common sense THAT REFUSES TO BE FOOLED BY FAIR PROMISE OR TO IGNORE BROKEN PLEDGES OF THE PAST.

The test of a woman's voting or a man's voting should not be EDUCATION, for who is to say what really IS education?

The chimpanzee who can eat with a napkin around his neck is educated compared to the blue-nosed manqué, who can't learn anything.

The high school boy is "educated." If you choose to say so, compared with the successful farmer who never studied algebra. But which of the two do you think is really "educated"?

The man whom Mr. Sunshine might consider educated would seem a pitiful ignoramus to Mr. Oliver Lodge or to Nicholson of the Chicago University or a thousand others.

There is no test of education.

But there is a test of human decency. Any woman who is self-respecting and takes care of her children, any man willing to work for his living, honest and a believer in our government, is a good citizen—AND ALL GOOD CITIZENS, MALE OR FEMALE, SHOULD VOTE.

The so-called ignorant vote is really the most important and valuable vote, for it is the vote that REFUSES TO ACCEPT EXCUSES.

A woman need not be "educated" in order to know that the streets are dirty, playgrounds neglected, willing workmen out of work, train prices high and life painful.

We don't give the vote to men and women in order that they may vote in favor of Mothers-as-against-Busmen or in favor of Bribe-as-against-Babes.

We give people the vote in order that they may insist on efficient government, honest government, clean streets, train regulation, prosperous times.

If this newspaper had to take the vote away from the most highly educated men and women of the country or from the great mass of so-called "uneducated" men and women of the country, it would take the vote very promptly from the educated. For they DO NOT NEED THE VOTE AS MUCH AS THE UNEDUCATED NEED IT.

And the educated, on the whole, do not vote as consistently or as intelligently as the uneducated.

It is not the educated gentleman with twenty thousand a year who compels public officers to reduce the price of gas or clean the streets in the poor quarter or provide the children with playgrounds. The "ignorant" men and women who live in the poor quarter and who create the children are the voters that get the work done.

They are the important voters.

That is why it is preposterous and stupid to talk of an educational test for immigrants and equally preposterous to talk of an educational test for voters.

Letters From the Readers of The Georgian

A STENOGRAPHER'S PAIN.

Editor The Georgian:

I heard the other day of a girl who complained that she was offered only $15 a week to be stenographer in a downtown office. She demanded $18. I am a stenographer with five years' experience, and I would not work for less than $18 a week. As a matter of fact, I am getting $20, and my employer evidently thinks I am worth it because he voluntarily raises my pay several months ago. I know some girls that pass as stenographers who, to my mind, are not worth $15 a week. They are careless, take no interest in their work or their employer's business, and really do more than help to keep salaries down.

STENOGRAPHER.

COUGHING ANNOYANCES.

Editor The Georgian:

Some time ago I read an editorial in The Georgian in which you commented upon people coughing. This morning, while running a business in a car, I was subjected to an annoying experience. I sat next to a man who coughed incessantly. I would have been very glad for him but for the fact that nearly every time he coughed he did so right in my face. He didn't get back like an ill-bred person, yet his actions were those of a man who was devoid of the finer instincts. Why are people so unrefined in public places?

L. M. T.

A GIRL'S PROTEST.

Editor The Georgian:

The other day I read an advertisement of a stenographer wanted, and called to apply for the position. I was asked if I had had five years' experience. I have been a stenographer for seven years. I was informed that the pay would be $15 a week. What do you think of it? I told the man I could not support myself on that sum. He said it was all he had ever paid.

COUGHER.

HE SAVES EDITORIALS.

Editor The Georgian:

For the last year I have been so very interested in your editorials that I have saved many of them. They are, in my opinion, more instructive and more pertinent than the average editorial that comes out of the pen of a P. M.

DEMONS OF THE SEA

By REV. THOMAS B. GREGORY.

TWO hundred and fifteen years ago, on September 3, 1672, the Treaty of Ryewick awarded the death sentence to the "Demons of the Sea."

The famous "buccaners" began their high-handed work soon after the Spaniards had made their settlements in America. They were largely Dutch and English, and they were known to the Spaniards as the "Demons of the Sea."

By the black flag and showing no mercy to the subjects of Spain who happened to cross their path, they a galleon loaded with the silver and gold of Mexico and Peru passed into their hands, and many a gallant crew walked the plank into the waters of the Spanish Main.

In the area of these sea rovers human life had but little sacredness, especially if it happened to be Spanish human life. Spain, in permitting the establishment of the internal institution known as the Inquisition, had outlawed humanity, and large for that reason Dutch and English buccaners, outlawed Spain. It was a magnificent instance of the "democratic" justice of the "demons of the sea."

Wives, Mothers-in-Law, A Word to You!

Why Do Women Who Love a Man the Most Torture Him with Their Petty Jealous Warfare Until They Force Him to Choose Between Them?

By DOROTHY DIX.

LOOK long at this picture, ladies. Study it well. Note the two angry women who stand facing each other, bitterness and hatred in their hearts, cruel words upon their lips, and then take heed of the forlorn, helpless, pathetic figure of the man between them.

It is a picture to make the understanding weep, and the pity of it is that it is one that so many, many men have only to shut their eyes to see reproduced in their own homes, for it is the picture of the wrangling in-laws that turn so many homes that should be happy into dungeons of purgatory.

In this picture the artist has seized upon the moment to which the long-drawn-out quarrel between a mother-in-law and a daughter-in-law have come to a crisis, and the wife has told her husband that he must choose between her and his mother, and that one of the other of them goes out of the door.

How shall a man decide? He loves his wife devotedly. She is the one woman in all the world he picked out to be his companion through life. He knows that she loves him. She has been good, and faithful, and loyal to him. She is the mother of his children, and he is bound to her by all the ties that can unite a man to a woman. He is a domestic man, fond of his home, finding his greatest interest in it. A thousand voices bid him choose his wife if he must decide between the two women.

But is this the case? Far from it. Wife is filled with surging jealousy of mother-in-law, because her husband still loves the mother who bore him. Mother is green-eyed when she thinks of daughter-in-law, because her son picked her out for a wife. And they nag each other, and harp on each other's faults, and interfere with each other, and hate each other worse than poison.

And both forget, in their blind, the man who loves them both, and who is their helpless victim.

Of course no one will contend that it is easy for a daughter-in-law and a mother-in-law to get along comfortably together. They may be utterly unaccountable in disposition, and everybody has their faults and foibles.

Admittedly nearly all old people are cranky and hoary. Undoubtedly all young women shrink that they are boresome to parents.

They can get along harmoniously if they wish it.

But while this is true, it is also true that any mother-in-law and daughter-in-law can get along harmoniously if they wish to do so, and try to make friends of each other instead of enemies, and that they can slash these differences for the sake of the man they love, if they love him unselfishly.

For in her heart every wife knows that her husband cannot be happy if she separates him from his mother, and every mother knows that she is wrecking her son's life if she parts him from his wife, or does anything to kill his love for his wife.

This is the lesson of this picture, ladies. Study it well. Look with seeing eyes at the tragic figure of the unfortunate man, forced to choose between wife and mother, and never give to your son or his wife that dread nightmare.

There is no place in homes for the picture of the man who is forced to choose between wife and mother.
